ARABIC I.1

SUMMER COURSE

Want to learn a new language during summer?

Arabic Programme offers an introductory Language course during the summer for the first time.

Come and learn how to read and write Arabic, talk about yourself and about your family, and enjoy a number of cultural topics that will be discussed during the course.

If you are a non-final-year student, please select the course on SIS during the add/drop period (June 15 to 22, 2020). For final-year students, if you are interested in applying for the above courses, please contact the Faculty of Arts.
